Copyright Alliance Welcomes New Board Members

Washington, D.C. – The Copyright Alliance is pleased to announce that Todd Dupler, representing The Recording Academy, and Bart Herbison, representing the Nashville Songwriters Association International, will join its Board of Directors and begin serving their two-year terms this month.

“We look forward to working with both Todd and Bart, and thank the departing at-large Board members, Mary Rasenberger of the Authors Guild and Pat Collins of SESAC, for the many contributions they have made to our work during their terms” Copyright Alliance CEO Keith Kupferschmid said.
