

Eileen Bramlet
Senior VP, Communications and Events, Copyright Alliance

Eileen brings more than 20 years of high-level technology, communications and event management experience to the Copyright Alliance. She has been a senior vice president with AOL, COO of two DC-based startup firms, and VP of PR and marketing for leading industry associations, including the Software & Information Industry Association. She also served as President of the DC chapter of the American Marketing Association and was on the board of the Maya Angelou Public Charter Schools for more than a decade.

Her areas of expertise include public relations, video production, digital and social strategy, event management, legislative and regulatory issues communications, and data-driven analytics.

Eileen attended Radford University, earning an M.S. in English, Journalism and French; and a B.A. in Political Science. She also holds a certificate in Entrepreneurial Business Leadership from Harvard University. Along the way, Eileen has worked across the globe, including Europe, Asia, Australia, and Latin America; has been married to her husband since college; and raised two children. When she does manage to find some down time, she enjoys traveling, running, biking, art and reading.